

The Dentists at Bicton Place

David Ward BDS, DPDS (GDC no 63007)

David qualified at Guy's Hospital, London in 1987. He worked in several hospital oral surgery departments before joining the partners at Bicton Place where he has been in practice for nearly thirty years.

David owns Bicton Place Dental Practice and takes a great pride in the practice, its high standards and the hard working team who make it what it is. He has a passion for excellent, patient centred, preventive dentistry and works hard to make Bicton Place a continually improving, happy and welcoming practice to our loyal patients.

If you have queries or concerns, Mr Ward will always try to make the time to talk to you personally.

Sarah Delay BDS, NUI (GDC no 194872)

Sarah qualified as a Dental Surgeon at the University College Cork and has worked and continued training in the South West over the last ten years.

Sarah has particular experience providing care for children and adults with increased anxiety related to dental care.

Sarah works every Wednesday whilst continuing her part-time work for The Special Care Dental Services in Exeter and Barnstaple providing care for patients with additional needs.

She is due to complete a Masters in Minor Oral Surgery in 2020.

Thomas Brew BDS, MFDS (GDC no 251922)

Tom is a committed and conscientious dentist who has worked with us since 2018.

Tom has an enthusiasm for high standard, patient-centred care. He qualified at the Peninsula Dental School in 2014 and went on to complete his membership exams in Glasgow. He was Senior House Officer in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery at Torbay Hospital and worked for practices in Crediton, Torquay and abroad in New Zealand.

Tom works with us from Mondays to Thursdays.
